Road Safety Education and Driving Lessons

Motivational & Career Advice Workshops

Are you looking for work?

Having a Driver's Licence can increase your chances!

Metro Assist in partnership with Transport for NSW will be providing a free information session on road safety and up to eight hours of driving lessons for job seekers who are newly arrived migrants and refugees.

Prior to the driving lessons, it is compulsory for the potential participants to attend the information session on road safety.

Only 8 spots are available. Priority will be given to refugees and people seeking asylum.

Supported by

METRO ASSIST CAMPSIE

Level 2
 59-63 Evaline Street
